Unto the Mighty Populace of the Outlands do We Alrik III and Salomea, King and Queen, send Greetings.
Battlemoor I has come and passed and a truly marvelous event it was. Thank you to everyone that attended and worked so hard to make it a success. With Battlemoor behind Us, Our focus has shifted to the many smaller camping events being held in Our fair Kingdom. July boasted fine events, including Lonely Mountain Defender, Caer Galen Defender, and Baron's War. We are traveling to represent the goodwill of the Outlands at Pennsic War and hope many of you will be joining Us there.

As fall approaches, the Outlands' bravest will gather to once again fight in Crown Tourney. The Crown bids all those Outlanders wishing to vie for the honor to be Heirs to the Stag Throne submit letters of intent no later than August 30th. After reading Kingdom Law, include all pertinent information required for letters of intent. Failure to do so is grounds to be withheld from Crown Tournament. Letters of intent may be submitted electronically or as hard copy. If you submit one electronically, look for a confirmation email. If you do not receive a confirmation email, please resend or send in a hard copy. Tournament format and guidelines for specific weapons and shield dimensions will be announced at a later date. After the August 30th deadline, We will contact all petitioners to notify them whether or not they are deemed acceptable to enter Crown tournament. We are hoping for a well attended Crown Tournament and Fall Coronation. To that aim We have made provisions to hold these events in a more central location, to encourage greater participation by the entire populace of the Outlands.

We wish all of you a wonderful conclusion to your summer camping season.

Chronicler

Greetings,

I need articles, stories, recipes and songs. Here is your chance to share with the rest of the Outlands! I know you have them; I hear them being exchanged within your groups all the time. However, now is the time to send them to me and share them with your entire kingdom. If you need help writing it, feel free to send what you have, and I will edit it so that it is readable by all, even if it is just a list (please let me know at the time of submission that you wish me to do this). You can send them directly to me at kaitlin@infinitycg.com, or mail them to my address, which is in the officers section.

Again, I want to mention event articles have gotten shorter. These are a half page, which is about 1500 characters for a good fit (1700 max). If you wish to have your event printed, please keep this limitation in mind. As always, I will print the minimum information regardless of length (see the submission guidelines).

Yours in Service,
Cady Cáelatnn Ingen Cháemgeln hui Thatdc

Seneschal

Greetings,

I am still seeking deputies to this office from al-Barran and Caerthe to act as points of contact for Crown Tournaments and Coronations. Their Majesties have decided to have these two events occur in central locations in the Northern and Southern Outlands. Any group can host these, but they will always be in the same geographical location. The deputy will be the contact for the hosting group. Please let me know if you are interested in these positions, or if you would like additional information about this matter.

On a related note, Master Christopher Blackwood has stepped down as the Kingdom Hospitaller. I would like to thank him for his service to this office, and welcome THL Diana of Llanberris as the interim officer for this position. She has graciously agreed to fill this office until a replacement can be found. If you are interested in being the next Kingdom Hospitaller, please submit a letter of interest to the Crown and me.

I have just returned from Battlemoor Mountain Crusades with many happy memories and stories. I wish to thank the autocrats and all the volunteers that made this event possible. If you missed this event I feel sorry for you and hope you can make it next time. The autocrat staff learned many things that can be changed or improved for next year, and Battlemoor promises to become one of the best events in the Known World.

As stated last month, I will be going to Europe for three weeks July 23rd to August 18th. I will have limited email access while there, so Master Juan Balthazar Tegero will be my emergency contact while I am gone. Due to my trip, the only event I have planned for August will be Clann War hosted by the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun.

Yours in Service,
Master James David

Earl Marshal

Greetings!

A few topics must be discussed. First, we will make all reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities to play our game. Do not dismiss an individual or reject them from being on the field simply because they have a disability. There are solutions for almost every scenario that will allow a person to take the field. Perhaps a helper in armor with a clearly marked tabard assisting a deaf person. Perhaps speaking slower or taking more time to discuss issues is needed. In all cases, work with me and the Earl Marshall office to explore these possibilities.

Second topic deals for those very few people that have conditions that are potentially life threatening and wish to take the field and fight. I am asking all of you to examine your health condition and be frank and honest. Do not take the field and fight until you have a doctor's note that states that you can play. I, myself, have such a note due to my open heart surgery. Until this article, I have worked with the local knight marshal so that he could understand what my condition was and what was required (steel plate on my sternum). Work with your local knight marshal, keep the info private, and be reasonable.

Next topic deals with people/fighters that are unreasonable. Each and every knight marshal is to notify me immediately regarding a fighter that takes the field with a grudge and wishes to hurt someone, or a fighter that blows off shots repeatedly, or a fighter that takes the field again and again with illegal armor. Also, and not limited to these examples, anyone that jeopardizes the safety of the field - this includes spectators that rush onto the field while fighting is still on-going, or someone that uses combat archery too close to spectators, or impaired fighter (e.g. dehydration, drunk, poor physical condition). All marshals are responsible for the safety on the field at all times.

Another topic deals with excessive force. Everyone knows that excessive force is not allowed and that the marshals will step in to insure that the fighters remain calm and that the issue is dealt with. But at no time is excessive force to be blown off. "I do not have to take that blow because it was excessive" is not allowed. Take the issue off of the field and discuss it. But never blow off an excessive blow.

Lastly, I will be stepping down as Earl Marshal at Stag's Con. I have greatly enjoyed working with all of the marshals in the kingdom and I have found that there are many, many people that want to do the right thing and to keep the fighting arts alive. To all of these fine people - Thank You.

Sir Dennis the Wright

Archer General

Greetings to the Outlands,

I would like to congratulate Sir Rand the Tracker for winning the Royal Archer tournament that was held at Battlemoor. The number of shooters was the largest that we have had in years. Over 30 shooters from all over competed in the shoot. The final cut of archers comprised of three Bow Shooters and five Crossbow Shooters, in the end it was Sir Tracker that emerged on top.
Thank you to everybody who helped out on the archery lines at Battlemoor, and to those who ran the prize shoots, they were very fun and challenging.

The summer is still young, and there are lots of events that archers will have a chance to shoot and have fun.

I would like to pass on a hint to help all of you. I have been watching and have noticed that a lot of archers place their bows on the ground when they are done shooting. I would recommend against that. When you get the bow (or crossbow) down in the dirt like that, the small chunks of dirt and junk are attracted by the wax that you have on your string. This dirt gets inside the string, and can act like lots of small saw blades and can cut through a string in no time. Having had several strings break when shooting, I can tell you that it is no fun. A couple of solutions would be to get or make a stand for your equipment, or even use something as simple as a blanket or a towel. You just want something between your expensive equipment and the dirt and grime. Something as simple as that can save you from lots of headaches.

THCord Angus Montgomery the Forrester

Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings to the mighty Outlands,

Battlemoor is over and I want to thank everyone for a most wonderful, educational and artistic time. For those of you unable to attend, there were many, many wonderful arts and sciences events. There were competitions, classes and live arts displays in Artisan's Row. There were three full days of classes covering a wide range of topics and the living arts displays were simply amazing. Every individual teacher and artisan was very willing to share their craft and the artisans of Artisan's Row were willing to show everything from cooking to woodworking to fiber arts. Competitions were also available in all kinds of topics from open competition to cooking, scribal and knitting and chess. I am so proud of all the teachers, artisans and volunteers that made this a great and artistic first Battlemoor. I can't wait for next year and hope all of you are as excited as I am.

YIS,
Emery de Fittun

Minister of Children

Greetings to the great populace of the Outlands,

A very special welcome and thank you to THLady Maria (Mariah) Abramsdottir who is the new Dean of the Outlands Academy of Pages. A special welcome also to the seventeen new Pages, who enrolled at Battlemoor in the Page Academy. For information and enrollment forms, please contact THLady Maria at avikinggoddess@yahoo.com.

You get to learn about the character of people, when you are helping them in the middle of the night deal with high winds (hurricane spinoff) as they walk for hours and help others with their tents and rain flies, and you know that they have had little sleep. I am very proud of Lady Meisha, Ailionora, Lady Sabyn and THLady Mariah, who not only spent many, many hours in the youth pavilions and supporting each other at Battlemoor, but who also were out for hours on two nights helping others.

Many people were generous and donated their time and their possessions to the youth at Battlemoor. Our Minister of Children Officers and Deputies Lady Sabyn Edwards, THLady Mariah Abramsdottir, Ailionora Inghen Eoghain, Lady Meisha Kulikova, Lady Aislen na Tuatha and Lord Fjord Mahony worked tirelessly, for many hours each, teaching and supporting our youth activities at Battlemoor. They were helped by Don Domin (Caerthe), Lord Vax (Fontaine), Acleliza de Harcourt (Caer Galen), Lady Nesta (Unser Hafen), Lori Brooks (Caer Galen), THLady Meriah (Citadel) and Senora Constanza (Dragonsspine). A very special thank you to Arianna (al-Barran) who worked many long hours for the youth and looked after the needs of our volunteers. Thanks also to our teachers, THLady Medb, Lady Sabyn, Lord Fjord, Don Domin, Lady Aislen, Lady Meisha, Lady Pettronella, Lady Biket, Lady Willow, Sir Ton, THLord Llwyus, Dona Theresa, Lady Aiki and Master Adam. And thanks to Brother Rowland and the Barony of Fontaine for the youth archery shoots.

In addition to all the wonderful generosity and support listed in my July OH MoC Letter, a special thank you to Baron Sabastian Taylor of Dragonstrod and Gabriel (al-Barran) for transportation, setups and tear downs of several pavilions and general support. Thanks too to Sir Ton the Traveler for help packing up youth materials and to Barron Robert Magnus and Baroness Magge Magnus of Caerthe for lending us another shade. Special thanks to Mistress Bennet Murray, Mistress Monika von Zell, Mistress Mary of Lyonshall, THLady Evain (Fontaine), Lady Bianca Mantegna (al-Barran), Lady Allianna (Calontir), Baron Mlodn the Merchant (Windkeep), Lyssa (Dragonsspine), Lady Asenath (Dragonsspine), THLady Meriah (Citadel) and Viscountess Lore de Lorraine (Atenvedlt) for donating prizes and gifts.

And finally a very special thank you to our youth who worked hard at Battlemoor -- Danielle 9 of al-Barran, Johnny 14 of Fontaine and John 13 and Victoria 10 of Rio – they were a big help at Battlemoor and did everything we asked of them with a smile. Special thank also to Katherine 7 and Dorothea 10 of Caerthe and all other youth, who happily ran cards for the List Table during the tournaments and did other service at Battlemoor.

On behalf of all the babies, children, youth and teens attending Battlemoor, our most heartfelt thanks for your wonderful generosity and support!

Windmill
by Alan Bell

In days gone by when the world was much younger
We harnessed the wind for to work for mankind
Seamen built tall ships to sail on the ocean.
Landsmen built wheels the corn for to grind

Around and around and around went the big sails
Turning the shaft in the great wooden wheels.
Creaking and groaning, the millstone kept turning
Grinding to flour the corn from the fields

In Flanders and Spain and the low coast of Holland
In the Kingdoms of England and Scotland and Wales
Windmills grew up all along the wild coastline
Ships of the land with their high canvas sails

In Lancashire lands we work hard as the good earth
Plowing and sowing as the seasons declare
Waiting to reap of the rich golden harvest
While the miller was idle his mill he'd repair

Windmills of old wood all darkened by weather
Windmills of stone, glaring white in the sun
Windmills like giants all ready for tilting
Windmills that died in the gale of the storm

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

Late Period Spanish Ciphers

by Sayyid Suleiman ibn Da'ud ibn Sahl al-Qalqashandi

The sixteenth century Spanish ciphers lend themselves to two mentionable footnotes. First, it was a Spanish cipher that was the first to be documented as being used in the new world. Secondly, the emperor Phillip II infamously asked the Pope to declare that King Henry IV of France had engaged in black magic in order to decipher Spanish ciphers. The infamy arose when it became widely known that the Papal office had itself already deciphered Phillip's code!

Despite its shortcomings to the cryptanalysts of the period, however, the Spanish ciphers, and particularly Phillip II's, were in fact quite complex and are likely difficult to crack for many people today. The ciphers made use of many symbols and characters so that according to David Kahn, it would not be uncommon to find 1000 elements within them.

These elements would consist of individual letters (represented by multiple symbols), specific words, and null characters. Furthermore, entirely different ciphers were used based upon the importance and location of the message.

This month's puzzle will be based upon the aforementioned new world cipher that was used by Hernan Cortes. Like previous nomenclator puzzles, it will make use of more than 26 characters but not the large numbers used in period.

It is interesting to consider that even after cracking the ciphers of the Spanish, the Papacy and the French were still largely able to conceal their communications. But that fellow Outlanders, is a cipher story for another day.

Words from the People

Stories, Thoughts, Recipes and more

NOTE: After two years of researching and writing this column I find that new duties require that I bring the series to a close. It is my intent to write a few more columns before writing a summation later this year that will include all the sources used.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: The site itself is very picturesque with a lovely backdrop of the mountains. There are trees (real trees), open fields, a small creek, and lots of ambience. This is also a working ranch but he promises to have the Highlands cattle he raises on other fields while we are there. - From The Battlemoor Site

THIS MONTH'S HINTS: 'X' and 'R' both represent 'E'. 'A' represents 'Pelican' and 'b' represents 'T'. There is one null and one other letter represented by two different characters.
